Such proposed caps were determined by the Company and the Substantial Shareholders after arm's length negotiation and with a view to optimizing the Group's temporarily surplus cash resources and managing risks and to facilitate the development of designated receiving companies in their primary businesses in the PRC, including goods trading, commercial services, public facilities management, equipment and community public area renovation, office building and commercial renovation, and investment.

To secure the Loan(s), each of the Substantial Shareholders shall enter into a Personal Guarantee. Each of the Substantial Shareholders irrevocably and unconditionally, among others, guarantees to the lender(s) the punctual performance by his respective designated receiving companies for borrowing the Loan(s) and undertakes that whenever the respective borrower(s) does not pay any amount of the Loan when due, he shall immediately on demand pay that amount as if he were the principal of the Loan(s). The Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) consider that the following risk control measures adopted by the Company are adequate to cover the risks involved in the provision of financial assistance pursuant to the Loan Framework Agreements:

- ii. upon the Company's and the respective lender(s)' request at any time, Substantial Shareholders shall provide forthwith to the Company and the respective lender(s) any documents and information relating to the business operations and financial position of the receiving company(ies) designated by the respective Substantial Shareholders, including but not limited to financial reports and financial statements;

REASONS FOR AND BENEFITS OF THE ENTERING INTO THE LOAN FRAMEWORK AGREEMENTS AND PROVISION OF FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

The Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) considered even though the entry into of the Loan Framework Agreements is not in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Group, the terms of the Loan Framework Agreements, which have been entered into after arm's length negotiation between the Company and the Substantial Shareholders, are on normal commercial terms taking into account the prevailing market interest rates, and the terms therein are fair and reasonable and in the interest of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.
